

#	Module/Feature	Technical Requirement	Test Case ID's
1	Main page - For engineers	1. Guest sees registration form (email + Google/LinkedIn/GitHub)	C86, C87, C85
		2. Logged-in user sees mobile app advertisement banned instead of the form	C188
		3. Links to "Jobs" and "Web3 companies" are visible and clickable	C88
		4. At least 10 real user testimonials are displayed at the bottom	C89
2	Main page - For companies	1. Page accessible to everyone	C93
		2. Contains a comparison table with competitors	C94
		3. CEO quotes displayed	C95
		4. Partner logos shown	C96
		5. Clear CTA leading to the candidate list and sign-up	C97
3	Candidates list	1. Candidate cards are visible to all users	C100, C103, C111
		2. Each card shows a short description of skills & achievements	C103
		3. "Show experience" button expands the full experience	C114
		4. Clicking a card opens the candidate profile in a new tab	C190
		5. Filters are visible to everyone but usable only by authorized users	C101, C104, C105, C115
4	Filters on the Candidates list	1. Available filters: Role, Technologies, Desired base salary (annual/monthly), English level, Location(Timezone/Country/City)	C104, C105, C115
		2. Guest gets login/sign-up prompt on hover/click	C101
		3. Logged-in users (candidates & recruiters) can fully use all filters	C105, C115
5	Candidate profile	1. Profile opens in a new tab	C189
		2. Contact details hidden until candidate shares them	C110, C112

		3. Experience sorted from oldest to newest	C114
		4. A recruiter can initiate chat from the profile page	C107, C109
6	Sign Up - role selection	1. After entering email & password, choice: register as a recruiter or as a candidate	C69, C70
		2. Social registration available: Google, LinkedIn, GitHub	C72-C76
7	Sign Up - as Recruiter	1. Required fields: position, company, contact info	C77, C78
		2. Candidate requirements section: role, technologies, salary, years of experience, English level, timezone/location	C77, C79
		3. After completion, redirect to the Candidates list	C77
8	Sign Up - as Candidate	1. Multi-step flow: Role > Expectations > Experience > Bio > Contact info (avatar, full name, CV, upload, social links)	C80-C84
		2. After submission: a message about profile activation within 24-48 hours	C80
9	Sign In	1. Login/password fields + "Sign up" and "Forgot password" links	C38-C61
		2. Social login available (Google, LinkedIn, GitHub)	C51-C55
10	Chats	1. Only the recruiter can initiate chat	C158,C159
		2. The recruiter cannot see contacts before the chat starts	C160
		3. The candidate can accept or decline sharing contacts	C169-C171
		4. The recruiter can send an offer or mark chat as rejected	C164, C165
		5. Both sides can archive or mark chat as a Favourite	C166, C167, C172, C173
11	Profile section	1. A user can have both a candidate and a recruiter profile simultaneously	C145, C101
		2. Ability to switch between profiles	C146, C147
		3. Edit each profile	C141, C152
		4. Activate/deactivate candidate profile	C150, C151

		5. Connect social networks & change password	C142, C153, C143, C154
12	Web3 companies & Jobs page	1. Paginated table (10/100, N/100, 100/100)	C116, C119, C121
		2. Company logo & name clickable (opens vacancy list in new tab)	C117
		3. Authorized recruiters can post new jobs (manual or ATS import)	C123-C125
		4. 1-click apply is available only for logged-in candidates	C128, C129, C130
		5. Vacancy filters by skills	C120, C122
		6. Subscription form at the bottom (roles, experience, email)	C118
13	Footer	1. “TOP 100 WEB3 COMPANIES” section with top 5 preview	C131, C132
		2. 3 columns of current Web3 developer vacancies	C133, C134
		3. Social media links + links to Pricing, FAQ, About Us, documents	C135-C137

	Mobile app (implemented features only)	Test Case ID's
1	Authentication	C196-C224
2	Chat	C225-C240
3	Profile	C241-C258
4	General	C259-C267